North America's First Customizable Parcel Pick-Up & Drop-Off Service

PUDO Begins Trading on the Canadian Securities Exchange

TORONTO, Ontario, July 27, 2015 – PUDO Inc., (“PUDO” or “the Company”) (CSE: PDO), North America's first customizable parcel pick-up and drop-off service is pleased to announce that it has received approval to list its common shares for trading on the Canadian Securities Exchange (“CSE”) effective July 28, 2015.

“We are very excited to enter our next phase of growth with the listing of our shares on the CSE. PUDO has developed and continues to grow its affiliate relationships with North America's online retailers such as Amazon, Hudson's Bay, Walmart and Indigo as well as a vast network of PUDO dealers including local convenience stores, gas stations and grocery stores for pick-up and drop-off of courier deliveries. With over 2,200 locations across Canada and more than 3,000 locations in the United States, consumers can now use these locations as an alternate address for their “not-at-home” courier deliveries. The parcel delivery industry is rapidly expanding due to the growth of online purchases. PUDO provides a reliable, convenient and secure service, where you want it, when you want it,” commented Frank Coccia, Chief Executive Officer. “In addition to our extensive North American network, new locations are being added daily which will provide consumers with even more choice and convenience,” he continued.
